

The MARI Mandala Assessment Research Institute and In-Sight Wellness Services offers

MARI®: Circles of Insight

An Art Assessment and Guidance Tool

Training in use of the drawn mandala and the MARI® Card Test as a counseling tool

This insightful 21-hour training provides:

- a comprehensive understanding of emotional issues within the cycle of life
- a means of identifying readiness a person's to address personal, career, and relationship issues
- instructions for the MARI Card Test, a non-verbal assessment providing insights to a person's present psychological and physiological state.
- techniques for therapeutic use of mandalas (circular drawings), which Carl Jung referred to as a cryptogram, a coded message from the self
- case studies in mental and physical healthcare situations using the MARI Card test and drawn mandalas
- 21 NBCC clock hours under MARI Creative Resources, provider #6335

Mental health therapists, health practitioners, clergy, life coaches and expressive arts therapists will find the drawn mandala and MARI Card Test highly useful for client assessment and insight.

Chris Brewer, MA, FAMI is a certified MARI® trainer with a Masters degree in therapeutic music use. She is also a practitioner and trainer in the Bonny Method of Music and Imagery. Her practice, In-Sight Wellness Services, is in Bellingham, WA.
www.MusicInHealth.net

2009 DATES

LEVEL 1

Seattle

March 27-29

Portland

April 24-26

California

May 15-17

$375 course fee or

$195 full-time student rate

plus

$220 for MARI card test and manual

To register or for more information contact Chris 336-207-7505

chris@MusicAndLearning.com