Soundtracks for Learning is an essential, groundbreaking book on using music to enhance learning.

Music expert Chris Brewer provides over 150 tried-and-true ways for using music to produce dynamic learning experiences and explains why music works in our classrooms.

This complete how-to guide will help you discover how to increase memory of facts, energize attention, and motivate learning in your classroom.

Add the All-In-One Memory Beat CD for $16

The Memory Beat includes music for the full learning cycle and features Daniel Kobialka playing Mozart, the Canon, Celtic music and more.
